AT HOME WITH
our tastemaker

editorial director Kelly LaPlante shows off her abode

PHOTOGRAPHED BY KIRSTEN KAISER

A woman with brown hair and bangs, wearing a black top and a red patterned scarf, is sitting on a dark wood mantel. She is smiling and petting a brown dog. The mantel is decorated with a set of antlers and several colorful nautical-themed items. The fireplace below has a decorative metal screen and a fire is burning inside. The background is a white brick wall.

Kelly gets cozy with Standard's official mascot, Winnie.

“The entry was dark and dreary when we moved in. A door that offered a ton of natural light was an essential replacement.”

“I like a clean mix of vintage and modern. In the entry hall, the Zaffie Pendant by Agi Miagi lends plenty of modern. Vintage mirrors and amethyst doorknobs—which we use for hanging guests’ coats and hats—complete the mix.”

ON THE OKL TASTEMAKER TAG SALE:
1: ZAFFIE PENDANT BY AGI MIAGI

“This house is all about where I am in life today. I have a three-year-old son and a pitbull... life is a little messy. There will be plenty of time for crisp white spaces when I’m in my fifties.”

“We change the color of the dining table at least once a year. This time, I gave into my little boy’s request for ‘purple’ and found a muted shade from Dunn Edwards. I liked it so much that I used the same paint for a custom detail on the bar wall.”

ON THE OKL TASTEMAKER TAG SALE:

“At the end of the day, the design exists
purely to amuse me.

The love that I share with my family is the most important factor in this home.”
